

Alexander Marhold
Senior Network Consultant
Bearingpoint INFONOVA GmbH

Alexander Marhold, born 1957 holds a MSC in industrial engineering and a MBA on east west management.

He worked in various companies and research institutions mainly in CIM and networking area. since 1995 he is focused on networking where he also holds the prestigious CCIE certificate (CCIE #3324).

Since 2002 he is a senior network consultant at Bearingpoint INFONOVA GmbH, and his networking and security expertise was the entrypoint into the SECOQC project. Currently he is dedicated to new challenges like converting a muddy fishpond into a swimming biotop, growing biological food,....